DID YOU KNOW ?

EVERYONE IS ELIGIBLE TO ENTER A CLASS AT THE FAIR!

You don't need to belong to a club or special group. All Departments are open to everyone and there are classes in every department for people of all ages and abilities, from preschool to senior. All youth are always able to enter an older age group, but not a younger one. Students in the Schools' Garden Program are also encouraged to enter any open classes in Vegetables, Fruit and Floral Departments.

YOUTH CLASSES – IT'S EASY TO TAKE PART

- Grow something – see Horticulture.....page 22
- Pick a bouquet – see Floral..... page 26
- Bake something – see Kitchen Arts page 33
- Make something – see Hobbies..... page 35
- Draw or paint a picture – see Art..... page 39
- Take a picture – see Photography..... page 41

ZUCCHINI CAR RACES

Fourth Annual Race to be held Saturday, August 11 at noon in the Home and Garden Building #1. See page 21 for instructions.

KNIT OR CROCHET

FAIR SHARE – A class that benefits the Chilliwack Hospital. Do you like knitting or crocheting baby clothes, but don't currently have a wee one on the way? Or perhaps you just like knitting for a good cause. This year we have changed the class to a different item: knitted or crocheted hoodies. See page 28.

OLD FASHIONED FRUIT PIE CONTEST JUDGED ON STAGE

Bring your freshly baked fruit pie to the stage in the Home & Garden Building, Saturday, August 11 between 10 a.m. and 10:45 a.m. Judging begins at 11 a.m. sharp. A panel of judges will taste your entry and declare a winner. Prizes and ribbons will be awarded. Open to all ages – fun for everyone. Deadline: Friday, August 3. See: Kitchen Arts, page 33.

ATTENTION GARDENERS

If you can grow it, you can show it!
