BUILDING HOURS

Friday & Saturday 10 a.m. to 9 p.m., Sunday 10 a.m. to 5 p.m.

OUR HISTORY from 1873 to 2019

- 1873 The Chilliwack and District Agricultural Society (The Fair Board) was incorporated. It is one of the oldest societies in B.C. and the second oldest continuously running fair. In 1886 The Fair Board purchased 4 acres of land from Mr. Isaac Kipp for $872.50. The Fairground was established as the block bounded by Wellington St., Mary St., Princess Ave., and Edward St.
- 1909 The Fair Board purchased 22.63 acres from William Hodgins and the Fair moved to Spadina Ave. The racetrack was built and soon gained the reputation of being the best winter training track in Canada.
- 1934 The new Agriculture Hall and cattle barn were built. Over the next few years additional barns and the Riding Club Hall were built and the Curling Club was built in 1952.
- 1935 The Fair Board purchased a group of lots adjacent to Corbould Street from the City.
- 1945 The Fair Board was having trouble paying the property taxes so the property was turned over to the City for $1699 – the approximate amount of the debt. There was an agreement that the Fair Board would forever be given year round offices, storage space, and the exclusive and free use of the grounds to put on the annual Fair. It was also decided to build a Civic Centre and the Fair Grounds was seen as the appropriate place.
- 1957 The City wanted to put a roof on the Coliseum to be used for skating. The property was returned to the Fair Board, which was eligible to receive grants from the Federal and Provincial Governments and the Coliseum was finished. The property was then returned to the City and Municipality. The Coliseum was used for many years for skating and hockey until it was replaced by Prospera Centre.
- 1967 The Agricultural Hall was renovated as a Centennial project and became the Evergreen Hall. The Ag-Rec Building (Landing Leisure Centre) was built using insurance money from several Fair Barns destroyed by fire.
- 1999 It was decided that the Fair property should be used to build a recreational and sports facility to be located on Lickman Rd.
- 2000 The Fair moved to the current location at Heritage Park on Lickman Rd.
- 2012 140TH Anniversary Celebration
- 2017 Canada's 150TH Birthday
- 2018 30 Years of the Chilliwack Rodeo
- 2019 147TH Anniversary Celebration
